

Marquardt Volunteer of the Year Award Nomination Form

It's time to celebrate some of the exceptional people who make Marquardt Village great. The Marquardt Foundation calls for nominations for the Marquardt Volunteer of the Year award. This award will be given to an outstanding volunteer who meets and exceeds the mission, vision and values of Marquardt Village. Please take a moment to think of a volunteer you know who has made a difference and fill out this simple nomination form. The winner will be honored at the Volunteer Open House in April 2019.

Date: _____

Name of nominator: _____

Location/Department/Address: _____

Telephone number: _____

Criteria:

To recognize and honor an individual who advanced the mission, vision and values of Marquardt Village through outstanding volunteer service.

APPLICATION:

Name of nominee: _____

Please describe the volunteer work that inspired you to nominate this individual and how it supports Marquardt's Mission, Vision and Values? (See back page.)

Marquardt Mission:

Grounded in faith, we promote the health and well-being of each individual we serve.

Marquardt Vision:

The Vision of Marquardt Village retirement and health care community is to become the provider of choice in retirement living, rehabilitation and end-of-life care.

Marquardt Values

Compassion

Integrity

Dedication

Hospitality

Creativity

Teamwork

Award Guidelines:

Nominations can be received via email or standard mail. Send the completed form to Sandi Budewitz, Volunteer Services Coordinator, sbudewitz@marquardtvillage.org, 1045 Hill Street, Watertown, WI 53098 by December 17, 2018, 4:30 p.m. If you have questions, call Sandi at 920-206-4010 or Cheryl Porior-Mayhew at 920-206-4000.

Nominations can be made by staff, volunteers, residents, family members, businesses, community members, but not by the nominees themselves.

Nominators must obtain approval from the person being nominated prior to submission and encourage them to be at the banquet.

Nominators may nominate more than one person.

The volunteer service must benefit Marquardt Village residents, clients, patients or anyone served by Marquardt Village staff.

Nominated volunteers must have provided service during the 2018 calendar year, however other years of service will be considered.

The Marquardt Foundation Board of Directors members will be the judges. All decisions are final.

The winner of the award will be announced in the Volunteer Open House invite.

Previous award winners will not be eligible for the award if they have already received the award within the last 5 years.